Monadelphous Contracts Update

Engineering company Monadelphous Group Limited (ASX: MND) ("Monadelphous") today announced it has been awarded new contracts and contract extensions for customers in the resources and energy markets with a combined value of approximately $150 million.

In South Australia, Monadelphous has been awarded a contract with Nyrstar Port Pirie Pty Ltd, for the installation of structural, mechanical and piping works at its Port Pirie smelter. The contract is part of the Nyrstar Port Pirie Transformation project to redevelop the smelter into an advanced multi metals processing and recovering facility.

In Western Australia, the company's maintenance and industrial services division continued to bolster its recurring revenue from oil and gas customers, with the award of additional work comprising:

- A new three-year contract for BP at Kwinana, covering the provision of capital works and maintenance events for the BP Kwinana Refinery;
- A 12-month extension to the Karratha Gas Plant services contract with Woodside for the provision of maintenance and shutdown services, at Karratha; and
- A 12-month extension to maintenance services contract for Woodside on the Pluto LNG Project. This contract includes work associated with its onshore and offshore facilities at Karratha.

The latest agreements take the value of new contracts and additional work secured since July to approximately $600 million.
